School of Law, and James M. Neal
Defendants -)

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGEMENT.

Now, on this 21st day of July, 1923, the above named cause coming on for hearing on this day, said day being a regular court day of a regular term of the abovenamed Court; and the above named Plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney of record, Chas. R. Nesbitt and each of the above named Defendants, (with the exception of ^{the} said defendant, The American Correspondence School of Law, against which said Plaintiff herein hereby dismisses this action, at said Plaintiff's cost) having been three times called in open court to appear, except demur, answer or otherwise plead to the petition of the Plaintiff herein filed, care not, but each of said Defendants makes default, And this Court having ordered that said defendants and each of them are in default and having so ordered, finds that the allegations contained in the Plaintiff's petition filed herein are true and are taken as confessed, and it appearing to the Court that said Defendants, Benedict J. Skalicky, W. M. Fewel and James M. Neal, and each of them have been duly notified more than twenty days prior to this date of the pendency of this action, as required by law;

And this court having further heard all of the evidence and the sworn testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the averments in said plaintiff's petition are true; that said Plaintiff, George F. Setchall, is the lawful owner and in lawful and actual possession of the
