

UNRECORDED

The Cherokee Nation August 7, 1902, it is provided that there should be allotted by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, to each citizen of the Cherokee Tribe, land equal in value to one hundred and ten acres of the average allotable lands of the Cherokee Nation; and

Whereas, it was provided by said act of Congress that each citizen shall designate or have designated and selected for him, at the time of his selection of allotment, out of his allotment, as a homestead, land equal in value to forty acres of the average allotable lands of the Cherokee Nation, as nearly as may be, for which he shall receive a separate certificate; and

Whereas, the said Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes has certified that the and hereinafter described has been selected by or on behalf of Robert R. Fields, a citizen of said tribe, as an allotment, exclusive of land equal in value to forty acres of the average allotable lands of the Cherokee Nation, selected as a homestead as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, by virtue of the power and authority ^{vested} in me by aforesaid act of the Congress of the United States, have granted and conveyed, and by these presents do grant and convey unto the said Robert R. Fields, all right, title, and interest of the Cherokee Nation, and of all other citizens of said nation, in and to the following described land, viz: The south west quarter of the north east quarter of the south west quarter and the west half of the north west quarter of the south east quarter of section ten (10) township twenty two (22) north and range fourteen (14) east of the Indian Base and Meridian, in Indian Territory, containing thirty (30) acres more or less, as the case may be, according to the United States survey thereof, subject, however, to all the provisions of said act of Congress.

In witness whereof, I, the principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of said nation to be affixed this 29th day of June, A.D. 1905.
