

erest as security for this debt,

If no well is commenced directly offsetting the above described land within thirty days from the date of the execution of this lease and continued with due diligence until the same has been drilled to the Wilcox sand Found at approximately 2200 feet, then and in that event this lease shall terminate as to both parties unless Oil or Gas is found in paying quantities at a lesser depth,

It is agreed that this lease shall terminate when expired by its own terms without any release unless at that time oil or gas is being produced in paying quantities,

This lease shall not become operative until it is executed by all the lessors named herein.

In Witness Whereof, we sign this the 20 day of September 1922,
