No. 3702.

FINAL DECREE.

And now November 3, 1923:

It appearing to the Court on satisfactory proofs, and the evidence, that the necessary expenses of funeral, of last sickness of said deceased, and of administration of said estate, have been fully paid and that all the debts existing against said deceased, or allowed by the Court, pursuant to law, have been fully paid and satisfied, and that said estate has been fully administered, as shown by the final account of Title Guarantee & Trust Company, Administrator of said estate, and by the supplemental statement filed by said administrator, duly audited and allowed by this court pursuant to due notice given and served, reference being had thereto, and that said estate is ready for distribution.

And it therefore appearing that due notice of the application for this final decree in said matter assigning for the estate to the persons thereto entitled by law, has likewise been duly given pursuant to the law in such case made and provided.

And it further appearing that the said deceased died intestate and the residue of said estate consists of the following real estate, to-wit:
