IN THE COUNTY COURT WITHIN AND FOR MAYES COUNTY, OKLAHOMA,
In the matter of the Estate } of Fisher Vann, deceased } No. 1965, probate.

ORDER APPROVING CONVEYANCE.

Now, on this 25th day of April, 1923, the above matter coming on to be heard upon the verified petition of Jennie Blossom and Cornelius Vann, praying for the approval of a certain quit claim deed dated April 25, 1923, conveying to John H. Middleton, all their right, title, and interest, if any in and to the following described lands, to-wit:

Southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section fourteen (14) township twenty two (22) north range fourteen (13) east in Tulsa County, Oklahoma,

and the grantors appearing in open court and the grantee appearing in person and it being hereby found and adjudged by the Court that said petition is in all things and respects as required by law and that all notice of this hearing has been duly waived whereupon the court proceeded to hear and determine the merits of said petition.

After hearing the testimony introduced in support of said petition and being fully advised in the premises the court finds.

That Fisher Vann, deceased, was enrolled upon the final rolls of the Cherokee Nation opposite Roll Number 30462, and that by reason of his said citizenship he had allotted to him the following described lands, to-wit:

Southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section fourteen (14) township twenty two (22), north, range thirteen (13) east in Tulsa, County, and that the said Fisher Vann departed this life in Mayes County, Oklahoma on or about January 8, 1917, intestate in and a bonafide resident of Mayes County, Oklahoma, and within the jurisdiction of this court; that he left as his sole and only heirs at law May Vann, his wife, Cornelius Vann, a son, Ezekiel Vann, a son, and Carrie Vann, a daughter; that he at one time lived with Jennie Blossom for a short time, but that he was never legally married to said Jennie Vann or Jennie Blossom as she has always been known among the Indians in the community where she has lived and that the said Jennie Blossom or Jennie Vann was not the wife of Fisher Vann, deceased, and did not inherit any interest in or to the above described lands. The Court further finds that the guardian of Cornelius Vann on the 28th day of May 1918, obtained an order confirming sale of all the interest, right, title or estate that that Cornelius Vann inherited in and to the above described lands and that guardian's deed issued to the purchaser, Ciscero Cavalier, and that the said Cornelius Vann has now no right, title or interest in or to the above described lands and that on the 25th day of April
