control of the premises described herein, and to collect the rents and profits thereof under the direction of the court, and any amount so collected by such receiver shall be applied under the direction of the court to the payment of any judgment rendered or amount found due upon the foreclosure of this mortgage.

This mortgage secures the payment of the principal note and interest thereon described and all renewals of principal note that may hereafter be given in the event of any extension of time for the payment of said principal debt or interest.

First parties hereby agree that in the event action is brought to foreclose this mortgage, they will pay a reasonable attorney's fee of ten per cent (10%) of the face of said note, to become due and payable when a suit is filed, which this mortgage also secures, and said first parties hereby expressly waive appraisement of the real estate and homestead

The foregoing covenants and conditions being kept and performed, this conveyance shall be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect. Committee

WITNESS our hands this 22nd day of October 1923.
