JOHN W. LEWIS, DEC'D. )

This day personally appeared in open Court Fred Manget, who being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled matter, and examined on behalf of the applicant to prove said will, says, I was well acquainted with the handwriting of said decedent and the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as his last will and testament is written entirely in the handwriting of said decedent and the signature to said instrument is the signature of said decedent. And from my knowledge of the hand writing of the decedent I am able to testify positively that said instrument, together with the signature thereto affixed was written entirely by said decedent.
