COPY OF FINDING

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF

August 26, 1922

Elizabeth Kraatz, Deceased

ACCOUNT SETTLED

COMPARED

This day this cause came on to be heard upon the final account of August Kraatz, administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Kraatz, deceased, and due notice, according to law, having been given of the filing, and of the time set for the hearing of said account and no exceptions having been filed thereto, the Court, having carefully examined said account and finding it regular and correct, confirms and settles the same, and orders that said account be allowed as the final discharge of said administrator, and that it be recorded. The Court finds that there has come into the hands of said Administrator of the money of said estate, since his appointment, the sum of $5020.81

And allows said Administrator credit for the sum of $998.54 for payments made by him in behalf of said estate, for which payments proper vouchers are presented and filed with said account. And allows said administrator credit for the sum of $4022.27 for payments made by him upon distribution of said estate, for which payments vouchers are presented and filed with said account.

Said administrator waives compensation.

The Court finds from the application heretofore filed that there is no inheritance tax due in said estate.

The Court further finds that there remains in the hands of said Administrator of the money of said estate, the balance of --- nothing, ----.

EDWARD D. MEEK, Probate Judge.

The above is certified under the seal of the Court, to be a copy of the finding of the Probate Court of Belmont County, Ohio, on the final settlement account of August Kraatz Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth Kraatz, deceased

Edward D. Meek,
