

recorded plat thereof.

And this affiant further saith that the wife of E. J. Bills died more than three years prior to the death of E. J. Bills, and that E. J. Bills was a single man (Widower) at the time of his death. And that at the time of his death E. J. Bills had no unpaid personal accounts and that all the indebtedness that he had at the time of his death was in the form of record liens against the real estate which he owned, and is secured by the Real Estate.

And that this affiant makes this affidavit for the purpose of establishing the heirship to the property of the deceased E. J. Bills, and for proof that he has no outstanding personal indebtedness. Further this affiant saith not. George W. Bills

Mrs. Mary H. Bills, being first duly sworn, upon her sacred oath, says;

That she is the wife of Geo. W. Bills, and that she with her husband, resides at Springfield, Missouri. And that to her personal knowledge her husband Geo. W. Bills, is the son and the only surviving heir of the late E. J. Bills, deceased, who died, intestate, in the City of Tulsa, State of Oklahoma, on or about the 27th. day of June 1923. And that the said Geo. W. Bills is the only heir, and is entitled to the entire estate, both real and personal, of E. J. Bills, deceased. And that Geo. W. Bills, is entitled to the entire estate and property of E. J. Bills, deceased. That the mother of Geo. W. Bills, and the wife of E. J. Bills, deceased, died on the 14th. day of January 1920 (1920), before the demise of E. J. Bills. And that the entire property and estate of E. J. Bills was enherited by Geo. W. Bills, the estate of E. J. Bills, deceased being his own personal estate.

And further this affiant states that the property of E. J. Bills, deceased was free from indebtedness, except such as was a lien of record against the said property. And that all his personal indebtedness was paid.

Further affiant saith not.
