

to said party of the second part described as follows:

Two notes dated January 8th, 1924, and due and payable to the order of Tulsa Lumber Company; first note for $386.05 due and payable three months after date, and second note for $386.05 due and payable six months after date; both notes bearing interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from date until paid, payable with each note.

Now if said party of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part its heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above described notes mentioned together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then this mortgage shall be wholly discharged and void; and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises or any part thereof are not paid when same are by law made due and payable, the whole of said sum or sums, and interest thereon, shall then become due and payable and said party of the second part shall be entitled to possession of said premises. And said party of the first part for said consideration does hereby expressly waive an appraisal of said real estate and all benefit of the homestead exemption and stay laws of the State of Oklahoma-----

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said party of the first part has hereunto set her hand the day and year first above written.
