

if any, to Dave Bruner, leaving surviving him as his next of kin, three children, to-wit: Willie Bruner, Lucinda Bailey and Mamie Villareal.

The court further finds that Dave Bruner is a duly enrolled citizen of the Creek Nation, opposite Roll No. 2919, upon the approved rolls of citizens of said nation as a Full Blood Creek Indian, and that he is a full brother of Josie Bruner, deceased, and is now and was at the time of the death of Josie Bruner, the sole surviving heir to the estate and allotment of Josie Bruner, deceased.

The court further finds that after the death of said Josie Bruner, on July 2nd, 1900, there was on October 14th, 1901, selected for and allotted to, and thereafter parents to and in the name of the heirs of said Josie Bruner, as and for his share of the Tribal lands of the Creek Nation, and to which he would have been entitled if living, the following described tract of land, to-wit:

Southwest Quarter (SW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-eight (28), Township Nineteen (19) North, Range Eleven (11) East, in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) acres more or less.

The court further finds that Josie Bruner and Dave Bruner were full brothers, and were the children of Eli Bruner and Sarah Bruner, who were husband and wife, under the Creek Law; that Josie Bruner was born about the 28th day of June, 1899, and died on the 2nd day of July, 1900; that Eli Bruner was the father of Josie Bruner and Dave Bruner; that both Eli Bruner and his wife, Sarah Bruner, died prior to the date and time of the death of Josie Bruner, and that at the date of the selection of the allotment for Josie Bruner, deceased, as well as at the time, date and place of the death of Josie Bruner, deceased, the Creek Law of descent and distribution was in full force and effect, and that his brother, Dave Bruner, was the person entitled to and did inherit all of the allotment and estate of Josie Bruner, deceased.

The court further finds that the petitioner, Conn Linn, through ~~mesne~~ Conveyances from Dave Bruner, as the sole heir of Josie Bruner, acquired both the legal and equitable title to and is now a record claimant and in possession of the entire allotment of Josie Bruner, deceased, to-wit:

Southwest Quarter (SW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-eight (28), Township Nineteen (19) North, Range Eleven (11) East, containing One Hundred Sixty (160) acres more or less, in Tulsa County, Oklahoma.
