That at the time of his death, the said John T. Lay was the owner of a certain promissory note for two thousand dollars, due May 1st, 1910, executed by B. F. Pettus, and secured by a mortgage upon the north half of Lot one (1) Block one and eighty-eight (188) according to the approved survey and plat of the town of Tulsa, Western District, Creek Nation, Indian Territory; being a plot of ground fifty (50) feet by one hundred and forty (140) feet, having a frontage of fifty (50) feet on South Detroit Street, and a frontage of one hundred and forty (140) feet on South Ninth Street.

That by an agreement of the heirs of the said John T. Lay, deceased, Rena M. Lay, one of the said heirs, was instructed to make the release of the said mortgage, when the said mortgage was paid off by the maker thereof, and the said Rena M. Lay, on the 13th day of July, A.D.1917, in pursuance of the said agreement, and at the request of the said heirs, made and executed to the said B. F. Pettus, and Frankie C. Pettus, a full and complete release of the said mortgage. That the funds received from the said B. F. Pettus, in satisfaction of the said mortgage and note, were paid over to the executors of the estate of the said John T. Lay, deceased, and were distributed by the said executors, under the orders of the Probate Court for Johnson County, Missouri, to the heirs of the said John T. Lay, deceased, as above set out, and as above described.
