

and due one to six years after date, respectively; notes numbered one to five, inclusive, being for Two Thousand ($2000.00) Dollars, each; and note Number Six for Ten Thousand ($10000.00) Dollars, all bearing interest at the rate of six percent per annum, said mortgage being recorded in Book 229, page 425 of the Mortgage records of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to which reference is made for further description of said notes and land; and,

WHEREAS, by deed dated June 27th, 1921, recorded in Book 366, page 496 of the Deed Records of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, the said A. C. Johnson and wife, Imogene F. Johnson, conveyed their one-half interest in and to the above mentioned land to the said P. J. Hurley in which the said P. J. Hurley assumed and agreed to pay the above mentioned notes; and,

WHEREAS, notes numbered one to five, above mentioned, have been fully paid and the sum of Two Thousand ($2000.00) Dollars has been paid on said note Number Six, and the said P. J. Hurley has requested the Great Southern Life Insurance Company to extend the payment of the balance of Eight Thousand ($8000.00) Dollars unpaid on said note Number Six so that the same shall become due and payable as follows:

$2000.00 on November 15, 1924,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1925,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1926,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1927.

COMPARED

and the Great Southern Life Insurance Company, by its acceptance hereof, has agreed to such extension upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set out.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, it is hereby agreed between the said P. J. Hurley and the Great Southern Life Insurance Company that the balance due of Eight Thousand ($8000.00) Dollars on said note Number Six is hereby extended so that the same shall mature and become due and payable in the following manner, to-wit:

$2000.00 on November 15, 1924,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1925,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1926,
$2000.00 on November 15, 1927.

and in consideration of said extension of time, said P. H. Hurley agrees to pay to the Great Southern Life Insurance Company, or the owner and holder of said note, the said sum and interest thereon at the rate of seven percent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, and perform all other covenants in said mortgage, and further agrees that the said mortgage shall be and remain a good, valid and subsisting first lien on the real estate described during the term of said loan, the time of payment of which is hereby extended and that every covenant made, clause, manner or thing contained therein shall remain in full force and effect, except as herein expressly waived and for securing the payment of the interest thereon hereby agreed to be paid. It is also understood and agreed that each installment of principal and interest shall after it becomes due bear interest from date of maturity at the rate of ten percent per annum, and if any installment of principal or interest be unpaid after it becomes due, the said Great Southern Life Insurance Company, or holder of said indebtedness, shall in that event have the right to declare the full amount thereof due and payable at once and proceed with foreclosure provided in said mortgage.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my hand this 10th day of December, 1923.
