

and employes of the said Ross Rayburn, refused to sign said deed and close said sale, thought the undersigned was then and there ready to accept said deed and pay the said price for said interest in said land.

That on the 20th day of February, 1924, at the hour of nine o'clock A.M. the said Ross Rayburn, again having notice to all the facts and proceedings had as hereinabove alleged, appearing in said Court and presented for approval a new deed executed by the said Esther Rabey to him for said interest in said land, for the express consideration of four thousand thousand ($4,000.00) dollars that the undersigned was then and there in Court and objected to and protested against the approval of said deed on the ground that his said bid was the highest and best offered for said land, and gave notice that he would insist upon his rights in the premises; that the said Ross Rayburn, through his counsel insisted upon approval of the said interest to the said Ross Rayburn for four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars, and the Court: notwithstanding said protest and objection of the undersigned, did approve said deed.

Wherefore, the undersigned claims to be the purchaser of said land, and the equitable owner of same, and hereby gives notice that he will in due time assert his rights in the premises.

Dated this the 20 day of Feby. 1924.
