

Car Number 572914. Also James H. Chenault individually is the owner of one Cadillac automobile Model V-61 No. Factory 61-U 828 of value about $2500.00; and, COMPARED

WHEREAS Rainbow Oil Co. is the owner of certain gasoline pumps situated as follows:

- (a) At incinerator plant, Tulsa, Oklahoma, value about $250.00.
- (b) Gasoline pump at K. C. Parking Yard on Cincinnati Avenue, Tulsa, Oklahoma, of value about $340.00
- (c) A gasoline pump located at the car barns of the Street Railway Company in Tulsa, Oklahoma, of value about $600.00.
- (d) A gasoline pump in stock and located at the storage plant described hereinbefore on Block 2 in Fleetwood Addition aforesaid.

And also is the owner of certain office chairs, desks, typewriter, adding machine and other office furniture and fixtures located in the office of the company at 9th and Main Streets, Tulsa, Oklahoma, of value $700.00; also is the owner of a judgment of $7000.00 bearing 6% interest from the ----day of July, 1923, until paid, which judgment is against Wenger-Armstrong Corporation, a corporation, of Chicago, Ill., and which judgment appears of record in the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, in the case of Rainbow Oil Co. vs Wenger-Armstrong Corporation, a corporation. Also the Rainbow Oil Co. is the owner of an oil and gasoline truck used in transporting oil and gasoline to its customers and between the stations and storage plant aforesaid in use in the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, of value about $600.00. Also the Rainbow Oil Co. is the owner and in possession of a certain lease for the term of three years and 8 months, ending the -- day of ----192-- , and which is a lease on the filling station, the buildings, pumps, tanks, engines, fixtures and appliances used in connection with said filling station at 9th and Main Streets, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and is the owner of a substantial and established trade and gasoline and oil business in Tulsa, Oklahoma, principally conducted at said last mentioned station and at other places herein mentioned, all of which lease, trade and business are of the estimated value of $20,000.00: and.

WHEREAS THE SAID RAINBOW OIL COMPANY owes certain debt and outstanding bills and claims in the total amount of about $16,200.00 the principal sums owing being as follows:

To Wilcox & Company, about	$3100.00
To Riley Petroleum Co, about	3100.00
To Sarah Miller	5000.00

which last indebtedness is in form of a note and mortgage on the above described Fleetwood lot and improvements, which note is in the amount of $5000.00 and is not due until on or about the --- day of --- 192-- . The other indebtedness is represented by open accounts in smaller amounts and are owing for certain necessary supplies and things incidental to the conduct of the aforesaid business; and

WHEREAS the undersigned, James H. Chenault, desires to secure the payment of the present indebtedness to the Riley Petroleum Co. and hereby in writing assumes individually to undertake to pay and secure said indebtedness and any other indebtedness that the Rainbow Oil Co. or himself individually might owe the Riley Petroleum Co. hereafter in pursuance of this writing; and,

WHEREAS the Rainbow Oil Co. is also desirous of paying and securing said indebtedness to the Riley Petroleum Co. as well as being desirous of paying any and all of its indebtedness to whomsoever due.

Now, Therefore, this contract, assignment and mortgage, made and entered into by and between the Rainbow Oil Company, a corporation, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, party of the first part, and James H. Chenault, individually, party of the second part, and J. L. Riley and Harry