

of this affiant. That said deed was made by mistake and that all the transactions in regard to the said property since that time have been signed by this affiant as James Burk and his wife, Clara Burk; That on January 20, 1922 the record shows that James Burk and Clara Burk, his wife, mortgaged to the Peoples Building and Loan Association, of Tulsa, this same property, and the mortgage was signed James Burk and Clara Burk his wife, which are the same identical persons as the said F. B. Burk and Clara Burk, his wife.

The records further show that on March 8th, 1923, in order to correct the mistake made in deeding said property, said J. W. Trimble and Mable E. Trimble made a quit claim deed to F. B. Burk, which was made for the purpose of correcting the former deed made to James Burk, when in fact it should have been made in the form of an affidavit for correcting an error made in said deed.

Affiant further states that on the 4th day of February, 1924, he signed a deed as James Burk to himself, the same being F. B. Burk, which is a part of the same transaction and is the same identical person as above mentioned.

Affiant further states, that no one has any right, title or interest in said property except this affiant F. B. Burk, who the records show at one time was known as James Burk and his wife Clara Burk.
