

1918; that said lease has by subsequent assignments come to the hands of the SHEPHERD OIL & GAS COMPANY; that he has been employed as a pumper on said lease from the 1st day of October, 1921, until the 15th day of January, 1923, at which time all pumping ceased and all production abandoned.

Affiant further states that six (6) wells, numbered consecutively from one (1) to six (6), were drilled on the above described lease, five of them being brought in as oil wells and Well No. 4 being a gas well; affiant further states that Wells No. 1 and 6 were abandoned on the 15th day of January, 1923, and have not been pumped or operated since; that before the 14th day of May, 1923, all the casing and tubing was pulled from Well No. 2 and the well was filled with mud and other debris; that before the said 14th day of May, 1923, nine (9) joints of casing were pulled from Well No. 3, together with the tubing, the rest of the casing being left in the hole because it had parted and the operators were unable to recover it; that said Well No. 3 was partially filled with mud and trash; that about the latter part of April, 1923, the casing settled in Well No. 4 because it was improperly set, shutting off the gas with the result that no gas has been used from said well since that date; that before the 14th day of May, 1923, eight (8) joints of casing were pulled from Well No. 5, together with the tubing, the rest of the casing being left in the hole because it had parted and the operators were unable to recover it; that a small amount of mud and sand was thrown in said well.

Affiant further states that all tubing, casing, rods and equipment was sold from said lease and said lease was totally abandoned on or about the 1st day of June, 1923, and that there has been no pumping, drilling, working, or operation of any kind whatsoever on said lease since about the 1st day of June, 1923, by or on behalf of any one claiming under the lease executed to Z.I. J. Holt on the 12th day of November, 1918.

Affiant states that he has not received any money as rental or royalty or for any other purpose from the SHEPHERD OIL & GAS COMPANY or their agents or from anyone else claiming an interest in or to the said lease executed to Z.I.J. HOLT since the removal of the material and abandonment of said lease as aforesaid.
