And I hereby vest in said Trust, full power and authority in the name of said assignor, his executors and administrators, but at the risk, cost and charge, and for the sole benefit of the said assignees, their successors and assigns, to sue for, recover and receive the debts, demands and moneys hereby assigned, and to give good and sufficient releases for the same.

Attached hereto and made a part hereof, is an inventory and appraisement to be made and returned by H. M. Rush and others under the terms of an agreement this day reached between the undersigned and said Trustees; it being understood and agreed that said inventory will include and particularly describe all of the property above described.

Consent to the reformation of this instrument is hereby given so as to make same cover and include each and every piece and parcel of property, real, personal and mixed, owned by the grantor herein, in any part of the world.

All interests in partnerships owned by the undersigned, and the above property is conveyed, assigned, transferred, delivered and set over to the said Trust, subject to and charged with all indebtedness which now is a legal charge against any of said interests, or against the undersigned, personally.

It being understood and agreed that the said Trust acquires all of the assets subject to all of the legal liabilities of the undersigned.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, the said properties unto the said G. T. Braden, C. E. Braden and W. C. Rogers, Trustees of the Braden Company, an Express Trust, their successors and assigns forever, and the said G. T. Braden hereby covenants with the said Trust that he is the lawful owner of the said properties; that he has good right to sell the same as aforesaid and that he will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims and demands of all persons.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said G. T. Braden has hereunto set his hand seal this 30th day of June, 1923.

G. T. Braden
