

parcel of land was legally liable for taxation, and had been duly assessed and properly charged on the tax book or duplicate for the year of 1920 and that said lands had been legally advertised for sale for said taxes on the first Monday of November, A. D. 1921, and the same could not then be sold to any bidder or bidders at said sale ( or at any adjourned sale), and that the same were bid off as aforesaid, on the 7th day of November A. D. 1921, in the name of and for said Tulsa County.

CONTINUED

And it appearing that the notice of the above mentioned sale was published for three consecutive weeks in the Tulsa Daily World, a newspaper with a bona fide subscription list and of a general circulation published at the county seat of Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, the first publication being on October 20, 1921, and the last publication being on November 3, 1921, said notice containing a notification that all land on which the taxes of the year remained due and unpaid would be sold and of the time and place of the sale together with a list of the lands to be sold and the amount of taxes due.

488

And it further appearing that the said Earl E. Logan, the legal owner of said certificate of purchase has attempted to have written notice signed by him to be served on the owner of said land and the person in possession thereof as required by law and that said written notice was returned by the officers serving same with his affidavit, that the said owners of the land and the person or persons in possession thereof could not be found in Tulsa County, Oklahoma and it further appearing that the said Earl E. Logan made and filed with and in the office of the County Clerk of Tulsa County as required by law an affidavit that the owner or owners of said land are the person or persons in possession thereof could not be found in the county, that the residence or place of business of the owner or owners is not known to the holder of said tax certificate and cannot be ascertained by any means within the control of the said Earl E. Logan, holder of said certificate of purchase and that the said Earl E. Logan, holder of said Certificate of purchase cannot by the exercise of reasonable diligence make service upon such owner or owners within the state.

And it further appearing that the said Earl E. Logan, legal owner and holder of said certificate of purchase has caused service to be made by publication of a notice for three successive weeks in the West Tulsa News a newspaper of general circulation and bona fide subscription list published at the county seat of said Tulsa County as required by law first publication being on the 4th day of April, 1924 and the last publication being on the 18th day of April, 1924 said notice containing a recital of the sale of said land and specifying the date of said sale and notifying the owner or owners of said land and the person or persons in possession thereof and any person or persons having a legal or equitable interest therein that unless redemption is made from such sale within sixty days after the date of service of such notice a tax deed would be demanded and would issue as provided by law and it appearing that more than sixty days have elapsed from and after the date of service of said notice as aforesaid.

Now therefore this indenture made this 10th day of June A. D. 1924 between the State of Oklahoma by W. W. Stuckey, the Treasurer of said county of the first part, and the said Earl E. Logan of the second part.

WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part for and in consideration of the premises and the sum of One Dollar in hand paid hath granted, bargained and sold and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell and convey to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, the lot, tract or parcel of land mentioned in said certificate and described as follows to-wit:

Lot 18 Block 1 Rosemont Heights Addition to the City of Tulsa, Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD said mentioned tract, lot or parcel of land with the appurten-