And said grantors covenant and agree to warrant the title to the respective tracts of land, above described, to the said H. U. Bartlett and L. O. Lytle and their successors to the extent of the consideration received for this grant.

And the undersigned H. U. Bartlett and L. O. Lytle do hereby accept said trust on the hereinafter terms for the purposes hereinbefore stated, and hold the same solely for the benefit of said trust.

Hereby a trust is created under the terms of Chapter Sixteen Session Laws of 1919 of the State of Oklahoma entitled,

"An Act supplemental to and amendatory of Article IV, Chapter 65, Revised Laws of Oklahoma, 1910, etc."

Said trust estate shall be known as BARTLETT DEVELOPMENT SYNDICATE NO.4 and its principal business shall be conducted at its office in room No. 229 Clayton Building, Sapulpa, Oklahoma or such other place or places as the trustees shall by resolution determine, for the term of the life of H. U. Bartlett and L. O. Lytle and twenty (20) years thereafter unless sooner wound up hereunder.

Said trustee, or the majority of the trustees jointly if any other one or more are added hereunder, shall have power to conduct a business in said name anywhere in the State of Oklahoma, in operating any well or wells producing oil or gas or either; or to locate, drill, develop, explore for producing wells or oil or gas or either; of carrying or transporting crude oil or petroleum, or natural gas, or any of the products of either or both, by or through pipe line, tank cars, trucks or wagons, for hire or otherwise; of refining or manufacturing any of the products of either petroleum or natural gas either for hire or otherwise; of storing or engaging in the business of buying or selling or dealing in petroleum, natural gas, the products of either, or leasehold or real or personal property useful or used in any of the above businesses with full power of delegation, substitution or addition.

For said purposes or any of them said estate and said trustee or trustees for it are
