

This mortgage is given to secure the principal sum of one hundred dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum payable monthly from maturity, according to the terms of one certain promissory note described as follows, to-wit:

One note of $100.00 dated July 15th, 1924, and due August 15th, 1924,

Said first party agrees to insure the buildings on said premises for their reasonable value for the benefit of the mortgage and maintain such insurance during the existence of this mortgage. Said first party agrees to pay all taxes and assessments lawfully assessed on said premises before delinquent.

Said first party further expressly agrees that in case of foreclosure of this mortgage, and as often as any proceeding shall be taken to foreclose same as herein provided, the mortgagor will pay to the said mortgagee ten dollars as attorney's fees therefor, to all other statutory fees; said fee to be due and payable upon the filing of the petition for foreclosure and the same shall be a further charge and lien upon said premises described in this mortgage, and the amount thereon shall be recovered in said foreclosure suit and included in any judgement or decree rendered in action as aforesaid, and collected, and the lien thereof enforced in the same manner as the principal debt hereby secured.

Now, if the said first party shall pay or cause to be paid to said second party, its heirs or assigns said sum of money in the above described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon according to the terms and tenor of said note and shall make and maintain such insurance and pay such taxes and assessments then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. If said insurance is not effected and maintained, or if any and all taxes and assessments, which are or maybe levied and assessed lawfully against said premises, or any part thereof, are not paid before delinquent, then the mortgagee may effect such insurance or pay such taxes and assessments and shall be allowed interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and this mortgage shall stand as security for all such payments; and if said sums of money or any part thereof is not paid when due or if such insurance is not effected and maintained or any taxes or assessments are not paid before delinquent, the holder of said note, and this mortgage may elect to declare the whole sum or sums ^{and interest} thereon due and payable at once and proceed to collect said debt including attorney's fees, and to foreclose this mortgage and shall become entitled to possession of said premises.

Said first party waive notice of election to declare the whole debt due as above and also the benefit of stay, valuation or appraisal laws,

In witness whereof, said party of the first part has hereunto set her hand this 15th day of July, 1924.
