In re estate of Loyis E. Rentie ,
deceased, Margaret Rentie, administratrix.

FINDING OF HEIRSHIP AND ORDER OF DISCHARGE.

Now on the 3 day of September, 1924, the same being one of the regular judicial term days of this court, the administratrix Margaret Rentie, the duly appointed, qualified and acting administratrix of Loyis E. Rentie, deceased, having filed in this court her final report and prayed that the court may make a finding of heirship and for an order of discharge,

And it appearing to the court that the administratrix was appointed on the 25th day of April, 1924, and that she duly qualified and on the 3 day of May, 1924 gave four months notice to creditors as by law required and that the said four months expired on the 3rd day of September, 1924.

And it further appearing from the final report that all claims presented within the time allowed by law have been paid and that all debts of every description have been paid off, and that there remains nothing further for the administratrix to do.

And it further appearing that Loyis E. Rentie, the deceased, died single and without issue and was the son of administratrix, Margaret Rentie, and she is the next of kin and heir at law of decedent.

And it further appearing that decedent left an estate of inheritance consisting of principally of real estate described as follows:
