And whereas, said special execution and order of sale having come into the hands of the undersigned sheriff on the 12th day of June, 1924, to be executed, he accordingly advertised said real estate and premises for sale by giving due and legal notice of the time, place of sale and property to be sold by notice in the Broken Arrow Ledger Democrat a newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in said county, wherein the said real estate and premises are situated, in each issue thereof for at least thirty days prior to the date of sale, stating that he would, on the 21st day of July, 1924, at the hour or ten o'clock A.M. and at the front door of the court house in Tulsa, in said county and state, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand, and sell, without appraisement, said real estate and premises;

And whereas, the undersigned sheriff, afterwards, on the 24th day of July, 1924, returned into court said special execution and order of sale with a certificate and return thereon showing the manner in which the same had been executed and performed;

And whereas, on the 1st day of August, 1924, the said court having carefully examined said special execution, order of sale, and the certificate and return of the undersigned sheriff, and having otherwise carefully examined the proceedings of the undersigned sheriff, and being satisfied that said sale had been made in all respects in conformity to law and the statutes in such case made and provided, on motion of the said plaintiff in said action, ordered and adjudged that said proceedings be and the same were in all respects confirmed, ordered the said clerk to make an entry on the journal that the court was satisfied with the legality of said sale and ordered that the undersigned sheriff make and execute to said purchaser, E.
