

That he was also intimately acquainted with J. J. Sullivan, who joined by his wife, Florence M. Sullivan, were the grantors in a certain warranty deed dated January 25, 1917, filed for record in the office of the County Clerk of said Tulsa County on February 7, 1917, and recorded in Book 195 at page 539, whereby said described property was conveyed to one J. F. Pitt.

That to affiant's positive personal knowledge said John J. Sullivan, grantee in the first above described deed, and J. J. Sullivan, one of the grantors in the last above described deed, were one and the same identical person, notwithstanding the difference in the manner of writing or signing said name. That said John J. or J. J. Sullivan is now deceased; that affiant and said Sullivan were intimately associated during the lifetime of said Sullivan. That affiant loaned said Sullivan money with which to purchase the said described property and took a mortgage thereon from said Sullivan and wife, and that affiant was associated with said J. F. Pitt, in the last above described deed, the title thereto being taken in the name of said J. F. Pitt as a matter of convenience, and that for many years prior to the death of said Sullivan said Sullivan and affiant were daily associated in their work.
