SUPPLEMENTARY CONTRACT.

This supplementary contract made and entered into this 15th day of July, 1924 by and between the National Hide and Fur Company, a corporation, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, party of the first part and Grimes and Friedman, a co-partnership, of Denver, Colorado, party of the second part.

WHEREAS, the parties hereto on the 18th day of June, 1924 entered into a contract of purchase and sale wherein and whereby the said first party hereto sold to the said second party that portion of its business known as the Oklahoma Waste Paper Company, and,

WHEREAS, at the time of entering into the contract it was the understanding of and by the parties hereto that the Howe wagon scale, located in front of the Hide Building and East of the main building, as long as it remained in that place and position, was to be accessible to and used by both of the parties hereto, in the conduct and carrying on of their respective businesses.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the things to be done by both parties mentioned in the contract between the parties hereto and dated the 18th day of June, 1924, relative to the purchase and sale of said business between the parties thereto known as the Oklahoma Waste Paper Company, it is hereby mutually understood and agreed that both of the parties hereto shall have free access to and use of the Howe scales hereinbefore mentioned for the
