

from each well where gas only is found, while the same is being used off the premises, and if used in the manufacture of gasoline or any other product, a royalty of one-eighth (1/8), payable monthly at the prevailing market rate; and lessor to have gas free of cost from any such well for all stoves and all inside lights and for other heating and lighting purposes in the principal dwelling house, and for any other domestic and farm purposes, on said land during the same time by making her own connections with the well at her own risk and expense.

3rd. To pay lessor for gas produced from any oil well and used off the premises or in the manufacture of gasoline or any other product, a royalty of one-eighth (1/8) payable monthly at the prevailing market rate.

If no well be commenced on said land on or before the 22nd day of July, 1924, this lease shall terminate as to both parties.

If said lessor owns a less interest in the above described land than the entire and undivided fee simple estate therein, then the royalties and rentals herein provided for shall be paid the said lessor only in the proportion which her interest bears to the whole and undivided fee.

Lessee shall have the right to use, free of cost, gas, oil and water produced on said land for his operations thereon, except water from the wells of lessor.

When requested by lessor, lessee shall bury his pipe lines below plow depth.

No well shall be drilled nearer than 200 feet to the house or barn now on said premises without written consent of lessor.

Lessee shall pay for damages caused by his operations to growing crops on said land.

Lessee shall have the right at any time to remove all machinery and fixtures placed on said premises, including the right to draw and remove casing.

If the estate of either party hereto is assigned and the privilege of assigning in whole or in part is expressly allowed- the covenants hereof shall extend to their heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns, but no change in the ownership of the land or assignments of rental or royalties shall be binding on the lessee until after the lessee has been furnished with a written transfer or assignment or a true copy thereof; and it is hereby agreed that in the event this lease shall be assigned as to a part or as to parts of the above described lands and the assignee or assignees of such part or parts shall fail or make default in the payment of the proportionate part of the rents due from him or them, such default shall not operate to defeat or affect this lease in so far as it covers a part or parts of said lands upon which the said lessee or any assignee thereof shall make due payment of said rental.

Lessor hereby warrants and agrees to defend the title to the lands herein described, and agrees that the lessee shall have the right at any time to redeem for lessor, by payment, any mortgages, taxes or other liens on the above described lands, in the event of default of payment by lessor, and be subrogated to the rights of the holder thereof.

Unless said well above referred to is commenced within time above mentioned and drilled with customary diligence to the depth of the Wilcox sand within time named herein, this lease shall become null void unless oil or gas is found in paying quantities at a lesser depth. In case of loss of hole for any reason, a reasonable time is hereby granted to resume operations.

It is agreed between the parties hereto that time is the essence of this contract.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF WE SIGN, This the 30th day of April, 1924.
