 COMPARED SECTION 2. In case any of the bonds or coupons issued hereunder shall not be presented for payment when the principal thereof shall be due and payable, either of the Companies may at any time thereafter pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the holder or holders thereof the amount of said bonds and coupons, and thereupon the Trustee shall cancel and surrender this Indenture in the same manner as if said bonds and coupons had been paid. And the certificate of the President or Treasurer of the Marquette Company, or of such other officer thereof as the Trustee shall think proper, that certain bonds and coupons in such certificate specified have not been presented for payment, shall be sufficient evidence of that fact to authorize the trustee to act under the powers contained in this Section 2. Neither the Companies nor the Trustee shall be required to pay interest on any moneys deposited with the Trustee as aforesaid; and any such moneys remaining unclaimed by the holders of bonds and coupons for six years after the date of such deposit with the Trustee shall be paid by the Trustee to the Company by which it was deposited, provided, however, that the Trustee, before being required to make any such payments, may, at the expense of the Companies cause notice that said moneys have not been so called for and that after a date named therein they will be returned to such Company to be published once a week in each of four successive weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
