IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF TULSA COUNTY, OKLAHOMA.
Keystone State Bank, a Corporation,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

Anna Fabella,

Defendant.

No. 22836.

JOURNAL ENTRY OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT.

Now on this 16 day of October, 1923, the same being one of the regular judicial days of the June term of said court, this cause comes on to be heard in its regular order, plaintiff appearing by its attorneys, Hughes, Foster & Ellinghausen, and the defendant, Anna Fabella, appearing neither in person nor by her attorney, and the defendant, Anna Fabella, having been three times called in open court to appear, except, demur, answer or plead to the petition of the plaintiff herein, came not but wholly makes default, and the court having ordered that said defendant is in default, and having ordered that the allegations contained in plaintiff's petition be taken as confessed; and it appearing to the court that said defendant has been duly notified for more than thirty days prior to this date of the pendency of this action, as required by law, by personal service on said defendant, and the court having heard all the evidence and oral testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court, and being fully advised in the premises, on consideration thereof, finds that all the averments of plaintiff's petition are true, as therein set forth; and that the defendant, Anna Fabella, is indebted to the plaintiff on a certain promissory note dated May 16th, 1922 for the principal sum of Nine Hundred and Forty-four Dollars ($944.00) together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid, and that said promissory note was due and payable, according to the face and tenor thereof, on October 1, 1922, together with a further sum of One Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($115.00) as an attorney's fee and all costs of this suit.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the plaintiff, Keystone STATE Bank, a corporation, do have and take judgment over and against the defendant, Anna Fabella, for the sum of $1028.66 together with the further sum of $9.05 as costs, and that said judgment bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date hereof, until paid, for all of which let execution issue.

Z. I. J. Holt, Judge.

I, Hal Turner, Court Clerk, for Tulsa County, Oklahoma, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true, correct and full copy of the instrument herein set out as appears of
