

Reithmiller, having consented in writing to the allowance of said account as filed, and it appearing from said account that the expense of administration, funeral expenses and claims allowed against said estate have been paid, and that said account as filed is correct and ought to be allowed,

It is ordered allowed as the final account of said administratrix.

It further appearing that the inheritance tax chargeable against said estate has been determined and a receipt filed showing payment thereof.

It further appearing that said deceased left surviving him as his heirs at law, his daughter, Mary G. Runciman, his grandchildren, M. Gordon Reithmiller, R. Evelyn Reithmiller, Ruby A. Bowdish, and Ettie G. Bowdish, who are entitled to inherit said estate in the proportion of one-third thereof to said daughter, and one sixth thereof to each of said grandchildren.

It further appearing by the records in this court that said grandchildren are minors, and that Mary G. Runciman has been duly appointed guardian for Ettie G. Bowdish and that Milton A. Reithmiller has been duly appointed guardian for M. Gordon Reithmiller, and R. Evelyn Reithmiller, and that Louis G. Gorton, has been duly appointed guardian for Ruby A. Bowdish,

It is therefore ordered that all the rest, residue and remainder of said estate, real and personal, be and the same is hereby set over and assigned unto said heirs above named in the proportion above specified to them and to their heirs and assigns forever.

It is further ordered that upon filing receipts showing payment of claims allowed against said estate, and upon filing receipts showing distribution of said residue, that said estate be closed, said administratrix released from all further liability as such, and her bond cancelled and discharged.

George H. Curtis, Judge of Probate.
