

K. M. Rowe, as guardian of and for said last named minors, filed his petition to sell all of the interest of said minor wards last named in and to the land hereinafter described; that on said date of February 14, 1921, said County Court made orders setting both of said petition above referred to for hearing and that a decree of sale was entered in each of said cases on March 14, 1921;

Affiant further states that at the time said petitions were filed and said orders entered in said probate proceedings aforesaid he was a resident of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and resided in the community immediately surrounding the City of Broken Arrow; that he saw and read the orders setting the petitions for hearing as published in the Broken Arrow Ledger-Democrat, a newspaper published in said city of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, and had personal knowledge of the fact that said matters were set for hearing and that orders authorizing said guardians to sell the interests of said wards aforesaid were asked for and that he was personally served with copies of said orders setting said petition for hearing, and at said time he had no objection to said sale and that he at that time had no control of the said minors, the said J.A. Barth, guardian, having the custody of said ward first named, both as to her person and estate, and Ida McHenry, the mother of the wards last named, having the custody of the persons of the minors last named and their said guardian, K. M. Rowe, having the custody of their said estates.

Affiant states that he makes this affidavit voluntarily and for the purposes aforesaid, and none other.

David McHenry.
