IN THE MATTER OF THE GUARDIANSHIP OF JESSE R. W. LANGLEY, )
ET AL. JOHN W. D. LANGLEY, GUARDIAN. ) PROBATE NO. 665.

O R D E R.

Now on this 22nd, day of January, 1909, this matter comes on for hearing for the confirmation of certain oil and gas leases executed by John W. D. Langley, as guardian of the persons and estates of Jesse R. W. Langley, Audie E. Langley, Minnie E. Langley, Joseph O. Langley and Maudie L. P. Langley, minors, to The Lucas Oil Company, on the allotments of said minors, located in Tulsa and Rogers County, Oklahoma, authorized and empowered, pursuant to an order of this court, dated on the 7th, day of January, 1909.

And it appearing to the Court that the petitioner in this case, John W. D. Langley is the father and legal guardian of said minors, that said guardian and said minors are residents of Rogers County, Oklahoma, and that said minors live with their father, the guardian herein. And it appearing to the Court that the allotments of said Minors are in what is known as the oil and gas belt and are located more than three miles from an oil and gas well and the Company to whom they have leased agreed to drill in the near vicinity of said allotments. And it appearing to the court that it is to the interest of said minors to lease their lands for oil and gas purposes to the said Company, The Lucas Oil Company.

And it appearing further to the court that notices for bids for leasing said allotments have been properly given in pursuance of an order of this court, dated the 7th, day of January, 1909, to-wit: For publication of notice of said leasing in two issues of the Claremore Progress, a weekly newspaper published in Rogers County, Oklahoma; and it appearing to the Court that the bid of The Lucas Oil Company for the leases for the oil and gas on the lands of said minors hereinafter set out was the highest and best bid made under and by virtue of the order of this court heretofore made, that said bid was in writing, and submitted to said guardian on the 22nd, day of January, 1909, and accepted by said guardian; and it further appearing to the Court that the order heretofore made in this matter for leasing said lands heretofore described for oil and gas purposes has been fully complied with in every particular, and that there being submitted to this court for his approval the oil and gas leases executed upon the allotments hereinafter described by John W. D. Langley, as guardian, to The Lucas Oil Company the highest and best bidder therefor, and the court being fully advised in the premises and by taking testimony in open Court, finds that said leases, executed on the 22nd, day of January
