

to succeed himself, and unless he be requested otherwise in writing, the City Auditor shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. In any such removal election the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from the office upon the qualification of his successor. In case the party who received the highest number of voters should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving the notification of election, the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes he shall continue in office.

ARTICLE XI.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

1. The City of Tulsa acting through the Board of Commissioners shall have power to do by day labor under municipal direction, any work which may become advisable, or necessary to be done.
2. In all work done by or for the city, either by day work or by contract, eight hours shall constitute a days work; and no employee of the city on work for the city, or employee of any contractor or sub-contractor, shall be required to work longer than eight hours in any one calendar day, provided that this section shall not apply to fire or police department or to the employees engaged in clerical work for the city; and provided further that this section shall not be construed to apply to any contract entered into by the city prior to the passage of this act; provided that in case of emergency, an employee may be required to work longer than eight hours, but when required to work longer than eight hours, such employee shall be paid for such overtime at the rate of one and one half times the rate such employee is paid for his labor during the eight hours.
3. The personal and real property of all persons owing any taxes to the City of Tulsa, is hereby made liable for all tax owing by such person, whether the same be due upon personal or real property, or upon both.
4. The Board of Commissioners shall have power to provide for an enumeration of the inhabitants of the city. And it shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners by resolution to appoint a commissioner who shall supervise such enumeration, whose compensation, together with all the expenses of enumeration, shall be paid in such manner as the Board of Commissioners may provide.
5. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise in the City of Tulsa shall be exempt from any of the special taxes and assessments authorized by this charter for local improvements.
6. The fiscal year of the City of Tulsa shall begin and end at 12:00 o'clock, noon, on the first day of July in each year.
7. All bonds, contracts, or other instruments requiring the assent of the city, shall be signed by the Mayor, or the acting Mayor, and attested by the City Auditor, and all legal process against the city shall be served upon the Mayor, or acting Mayor.
8. In addition to the other modes of collection anywhere in this act provided, all taxes due the city, may be collected by an action of debt, and liens on real estate may be foreclosed in any court having jurisdiction. The assessment rolls relating to such taxes shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the statements made therein, and the city shall have authority to become the purchaser at all sales of property for taxes due it, under judgment or otherwise. It shall be the duty of the Mayor to attend such sales to make such purchases if they become necessary, or to empower some other person to do so on behalf of the city.
- 9 Before the city of Tulsa shall be liable for damages of any kind, the person injured,
