

son, ^{has} ~~and~~ died since the death of the said Anderson Johnson, leaving as his heirs and surviving him, his wife / Sally McCoy, and two minor children. That letters of administration on the estate of said Henry McCoy have issued to One S. W. Brown, Jr., and that the said Wife of Henry McCoy, Sallie McCoy, has been appointed the guardian of ^{said} ~~her~~ two minor children. That the said living heirs of said Anderson Johnson are full blood citizens of the Creek Nation of Indians, and come within Section Nine of the Act of Congress of May 27th, 1908, providing for the sale of the land of deceased allottees.

And it being further shown to the Court that on May 3rd, 1909, said petitioners executed and delivered to J. F. of Bixby Oklahoma, a warranty deed covering said above described premises for consideration of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200.00).

And it being shown by testimony of free holders living in the neighborhood of the location of said land that the said sum is a fair and just Price for said land and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said deed should be approved.

It is therefore by the Court considered, ordered and adjudged that the warranty deed conveying the premises above described, executed by Andrew Johnson and Elizabeth Johnson and Cilla Brown, as the living heirs of Anderson Johnson, deceased, to J. F. Pautler, be and the same is hereby approved.
