WHEREAS, The said parties of the first part are justly indebted to the said party of the second part in the sum of Six Hundred Fifty and no/100 Dollars, for actual money loaned to said first parties by second party as is evidenced by one certain principal promissory note, executed by first parties to second party, of even date herewith for $ 650.00 Dollars, due Sept. 1st, 1916 drawing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from date, until due, and ten per centum interest after due; said interest payable semi-annually and evidenced until maturity of said principal note by ten interest coupon notes attached thereto, and forming a part thereof, said interest coupons using the amounts and payable as follows:

said interest coupons bear ten per centum per annum, payable semi-annually after due.
 Now if the said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid, said principal and interest notes according to the tenor and effect thereof, and at the time and place therein provided, and do perform all and every other covenant and agreement in this mortgage provided, then this instrument shall be null and void (and shall be released at the expense of first party), otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED By the first parties hereto that during the continuance in force of this instrument, or any part thereof, they shall pay all taxes and assessments, levied against said premises, when due, and they will neither commit or permit any waste upon said premises, or the removal of any buildings or other improvements therefrom.

The said parties of the first part agree to procure and maintain policies of fire and tornado insurance (in block not "mutual" Company or Companies) on the buildings now or hereafter erected on the premises hereby conveyed in such Company or Companies as second party may elect to the sum of $ Fire insurance, as above provided, to be maintained in the amounts named above so long as this mortgage, or any part of the same, is in force.

And it is further stipulated that in case the taxes or assessments of any kind levied against said premises are not paid when due, or if there is a failure to maintain insurance as in this mortgage provided, then the second party, her heirs, assigns or legal representatives may pay such taxes or assessments, or effect such insurance and the amounts so expended therefor shall bear interest from the date of such expenditure at eight per cent. per annum, and this mortgage is security for the money so expended with interest as provided.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED By the parties of the first part, binding his heirs, legal representatives, successors, assigns, grantees and lessees, that during the life of this mortgage, or any part thereof, there shall be no stripping of any part of the premises herein mortgaged to obtain coal, stone or other minerals or substances, nor shall any mining of any kind or nature be permitted thereon. However, the foregoing provision shall not apply to any oil or gas lease now on said premises that now appears of record either at the office of the U. S. Indian Agency at Muskogee or in the County where the said premises are located or in the proper recording District of the Indian Territory before Statehood became effective for Oklahoma, but all incomes, profits, royalties or other monies or thing of value due or to become due from said oil and gas lease or leases, as well as any other right, title or interest of mortgagors therein, are hereby assigned to the mortgagee herein, his assigns, successors, or legal representatives as a further and additional security for the full performance of the obligations named in this mortgage.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED That in case the party of the second part, her legal representatives, successors or assigns shall hereafter appear in any of the Land Departments of the General Government, or before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Okla., or before any United States Indian Agency, the first parties an attorney's fee of fifty dollars, which sum shall be due upon the filing of petition in foreclosure and this mortgage shall stand as security for such attorney's fee.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED And understood, that upon a breach of the warranty herein, or upon a failure or refusal to pay the principal indebtedness hereby secured when due, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon when due, or any tax or assessment herein mentioned, or maintenance of insurance as herein provided, or to permit mining or stripping for coal or other substance on said premises contrary to the provisions of this mortgage, or a failure to deliver the said incomes, rents, royalties or other moneys or thing of value arising from any oil and gas lease as above provided, or to comply with any of the agreements or provisions of this mortgage; then, in either event, that the whole sum hereby secured shall at once and without notice become due and payable, at the option of the holder hereof, and shall bear interest thereafter at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, and the said party of the second part, his heirs, successors, legal representatives or assigns shall be entitled to a foreclosure of this mortgage and to have the said premises sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured, and that immediately upon the filing of the petition in foreclosure the holder hereof shall be entitled to the possession of said premises, and to each and every part thereof, and to collect and apply the rents therefrom, less the reasonable expenditures, to the payment of the indebtedness secured under this mortgage, and for this purpose the holder hereof shall be entitled to a receiver, to the appointment of which the mortgagors hereby consent, which appointment may be made either before or after the decree of foreclosure, and the holder hereof shall in no case be held to account for any damages, nor for any rental, or other monies other than those actually received. The appraisal of said premises is hereby expressly waived. All covenants and agreements herein contained shall run with the premises hereby conveyed; and this mortgage and the evidences of indebtedness hereby secured shall in all respects be governed and construed by the laws of Oklahoma, and first parties hereby expressly waive all benefits of the homestead and stay laws of Oklahoma.
