

lessee, as royalty the sum of ten per cent of the value on the leased premises of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall finally be determined under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall constitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty on each gas-producing well, the lessor to have the free use of gas for lighting and warming her residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lessee to use a gas-producing well where the same can not be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed shall not void the forfeiture of this lease so far as the same relates to mining oil but if the lessor desires to retain gas producing privileges it shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on each gas-producing well utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each successive year, begining from the first payment.

And the party of the second part further agrees to bind itself, its successors and assigns, to pay or cause to be paid to the lessor, annual royalty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance for the fifth and each succeeding year; thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sum of money so paid shall be a credit on all capitalized royalties should the sum exceed such sum of money advanced for it, and further that should the party of the second part fail to pay such annual royalty for the period of forty years after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the option of the lessor be null and void, and all royalties and advances shall become the money and property of the lessor.

The party of the second part further agrees and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking, drilling for oil and natural gas on the lands, covered by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and should the party of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be declared null and void, with due notice to the lessee and proof of the default; and said party of the second part agrees to operate the same in a workmanlike manner to the fullest possible extent, unavoidable excavation excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no waste to be committed upon the portion in its occupancy or use; to take good care of the same, and to properly surrender and set aside the premises upon the termination of this lease to the lessor on the first day of the month over shall be lawfully entitled thereto, and not to remove therefrom any buildings
