

THIRD: That during the continuance in force of this instrument, the said first party will pay all taxes, charges or assessments, general or special, that may be levied upon said real estate by authority of the town, or city in which said real estate is situate, or any part thereof when the same shall become by-law due and payable, including all taxes and assessments of every kind and character levied upon the interest herein of the mortgagee or his assigns, and all taxes levied upon said mortgage; and the said mortgagors shall not be entitled to any offset against the sums hereby secured for taxes so paid; and that first party will exhibit once a year, on demand, receipts of the proper persons to said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, showing payment thereof, until the indebtedness hereby secured shall be fully paid. The said first party further agrees to constantly keep the said premises free from mechanics' liens, and to preserve and protect the security hereunder against any adverse, superior or intervening claim or interest.

FOURTH: That said first party will keep all buildings, fences, sidewalks and other improvements on said real estate in as good repair and condition as the same are in at this date, and permit no waste, and especially no cutting of shrubbery, fruit or shade trees; that it will at no time permit any part of the premises to be used in the conduct of any illegal or disreputable business, or such as will tend to injure or unfit said premises for general business or residence purposes; that it will permit no unnecessary accumulation of combustible material upon said premises; that it will constantly keep in proper order all pipes, connections, fixtures and attachments of every kind relating to the plumbing for and use of natural or manufactured gas or both, water supply, and sewerage, furnaces, steam pipes and boilers, so as to prevent damage or undue risk to the property thereby, and will keep all electric light wires and connections in safe condition and properly insulated; the party of the second part reserving for himself and his representatives the right to enter upon and inspect the premises at any reasonable hours and as often as he or they may desire.

FIFTH: That said first party will at once insure the buildings upon said premises against loss by fire, lightning and wind storm, in the amount of $15000, in insurance companies approved by said second party, for not less than a three year term, and at once deliver all policies properly assigned to said second party as collateral and additional security for the payment of said debt, interest, and all sums secured hereby, and will so maintain such insurance until said debt is paid, and if default is made therein, then said second party may so insure and reinsure said buildings, acting as agent for said first party in every particular; that every insurance policy on said premises issued before said debt is paid shall be assigned as collateral security to the party of the second part or assigns as above provided, and, whether the same have been actually assigned or not, they shall in case of loss, be payable to said second party or assigns to the extent of their interest as mortgagee in said premises; and that said second party or assigns may assign said policies as agent of said first party, to any subsequent purchaser of said premises; and that in the event of loss under any such policy or policies, the second party shall have, and is hereby specifically given, full power to settle and collect the same, and to apply the amount so collected toward the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured.

SIXTH: That in case the said first party shall make default in any one or more of said agreements, then the said second party or assigns may pay such taxes and effect such insurance, and protect said title against adverse claims and liens, and pay the costs
