

connections for such gas at the well at their own risk and expense.

Said second party agrees to locate all wells so as to interfere as little as possible with the cultivated portions of the premises and to pay for all damages to growing crops caused by said operations.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that, if a well is not commenced on said premises within four months from the date hereof, and worked continuously until well is completed, then this lease and agreement shall be null and void, unless the party of the second part within each and every month after the expiration of the time above mentioned for the commencement of a well, shall pay a rental of Sixty Dollars until a well is commenced thereon, or until this lease is cancelled as hereinafter provided. And it is agreed that the completion of a well shall be and operate as a full liquidation of all rental under this provision during the remainder of this lease. All rentals and other payments may be made direct to parties of the first part or may be deposited to their credit at their Banking place. And further, upon the payment of One Dollar at any time after one year by the party of the second part, their heirs and assigns, to the parties of the first part, their heirs and assigns, said lessees shall have the right to surrender and this lease for cancellation, after which all payments and liabilities thereafter to accrue under and by virtue of its terms shall cease and determine, and this lease become absolutely null and void.

All the conditions between the parties hereto shall extend to and apply to their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year above written.
