

To have and to hold the same unto him the said Earle T. Miller, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the residue of the term in said lease mentioned, under the rents and covenants therein reserved and contained, on my part and behalf to be done, kept and performed.

The consideration for the assignment of said lease is the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the agreements of the said Earle T. Miller, hereby made, to begin drilling for oil and gas on said land, ~~the~~ ^{last} described, or cause such drilling to be begun, on or before the 1st day of April 1910 and to continue or cause to be continued without delay, except from unavoidable causes until a depth of 2000ft. is reached unless oil or gas is found in paying quantities at a less depth.

It is hereby agreed that should said Miller fail to drill on said land as above provided, he shall forfeit to said Bowen the said lease, together with the sum of $160.00 which sum is in the possession of the Bank of Oklahoma, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, as trustee, as a forfeit to be paid by said Miller if he fails to drill on said land as provided for herein.

And I, the said C.A. Bowen, do hereby guarantee and warrant unto the said Earle T. Miller all the right, title and interest held by me as ~~lease~~ of said land herein described under said lease made to me by said Samuel A. Orcutt Guardian of said minor.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set out hands the date first above mentioned.

Earle T. Miller.
