John H. Thompson being first duly sworn on his oath says that he is an uncle of J.R. Thompson who appears as lessee and grantee in certain leases and contracts of sale which appear on record as involving the North Half of the Southwest quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section Thirty-Six, Township Twenty North Range Twelve East. That affiant acted as agent for said J.R. Thompson in such negotiations. That one S.R. Young whose name appears as lessor and grantor is a Cherokee Freedman and at the time the above contracts were made claimed to be the owner of property in Township Twenty one. That by error of J.W. Pixley who made out the above papers the land of said Young was described as being in Township Twenty instead of Township Twenty one. That neither said S.L. Young
