

be provided by the laws of the State of Oklahoma, applicable to cities of the first class; and the County Treasurer and other officers of the County of Tulsa shall perform all acts with reference to the collection of the ad valorem taxes for the City of Tulsa, with the same costs and penalties added in the same manner as through the City of Tulsa were a city of the first class and without an ~~an~~ adopted charter, and shall pay the sums so collected to the treasurer of the city of Tulsa, at the same times and upon the same demand as is provided or may hereafter be provided by the ^{Laws} ~~laws~~ of the State of Oklahoma, having reference to cities of the first class.

Section 4. Ad valorem taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred ten shall be levied as provided in this Amendment and upon the assessment rolls for taxes for the year 1910 made and returned to the county Clerk of Tulsa County by the city or township assessor for the city of Tulsa, elected under the general laws of the State of Oklahoma, to assess the taxable property within the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, for County and State ad valorem taxation purposes.

Section 5. The assessment of property in the City of Tulsa shall hereafter be equalized and adjusted by a board of equalization composed of the same officers as provided by laws of the State of Oklahoma, relative to the equalization ~~of~~ ^{and} tax assessments in cities, and where in the said laws, the City Clerk is made a member of such board, the city Auditor of the City of Tulsa shall act in his stead, there being no City Clerk in the City of Tulsa, and the city Auditor being in effect the City Clerk of the City of Tulsa.

Section 6. That whenever in the Constitution or general laws of the state of Oklahoma in force in the City of Tulsa, or hereafter put in force in the City of Tulsa, any duty is imposed upon or power conferred upon, the City Council or Board of Trustees, or ~~other~~ legislative body of a city of the first class with reference to the assessment levy, or collection of general ad valorem or special taxes, such duty shall be performed, or power exercised by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Tulsa and whenever a duty in such constitution and law, is imposed upon, or ~~power~~ ^{power} conferred thereby upon, the City Clerk of a City of the first class, with reference to such subjects, the said duty shall devolve upon or power be exercised by the City Auditor of the City of Tulsa.

Section 7. All provisions of the Charter of the City of Tulsa providing for the assessment, levy and collection of ad valorem taxes on all the taxable property in the city of Tulsa, under the supervision of the Commissioner of Finance and Revenue, or by or under the directions or supervision of the Board of Commissioners, or the sale of any property for delinquent ad valorem taxes due to the city of Tulsa by any of the officers of the City of Tulsa, in so far as inconsistent with this Amendment, upon the adoption and approval of this Amendment, ~~be~~ ^{be} rescinded and of no further force and effect.

Provided However, that the advalorem taxes levied for the year 1909, and prior years, and the collection of the same by suit or sale of the property, as now provided by the Charter or ordinances of the City of Tulsa, shall in no wise be prejudiced by this Amendment, but shall be made in the same manner as though this Amendment had not been made.

Provided further, that nothing in this Amendment shall be construed to effect any of the provisions of the Charter of the City of Tulsa, or to impair the power of the City of Tulsa, as provided in its Charter to levy and collect special taxes for purposes not covered by this Amendment.
