

Treasurer of the City of Tulsa for disbursement according to the provisions of the Charter and the ordinances of the City levying such assessment. And if the property subject to such assessment be sold by the county Treasurer, the certificate or deed therefor shall be executed by such officers in the same manner as is, or may hereafter be, provided by law for the sale of property for ad valorem taxes, and such lien may also be enforced by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction; and the Board of Commissioners may by resolution or ordinance make such other rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Charter, as it may deem necessary to provide for the speedy collection of such assessment for improvements. Any error or omission in selling property or designating the names of owners or any other error or omission, may be corrected at any time by the County Treasurer in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Oklahoma, relative to the correction of mistakes in sales of property for ad valorem taxes, or by the Board, or at the suit of any interested party. In any suit brought under the provision of this section it shall be proper to join as defendants two or more property owners who are interested in any single improvement or any single contract for such improvement.

Section 10. The special assessment or tax provided to be levied in Section 3, of Article VII of the Charter of the City of Tulsa shall be payable to and collected by the Commissioner of Finance and Revenue of the City of Tulsa at the time and in the manner prescribed by the ordinance levying the same, and if not paid when due the Commissioner of Finance and Revenue of the City of Tulsa shall advertise the premises against which the said tax is a lien and sell the same in the manner and upon the same terms in all respects as is provided by the laws of the state of Oklahoma for the advertisement and sale of real estate by the Treasurer of Tulsa County for ad valorem taxes, and such property so sold may be redeemed from such sale within the same time and upon the same terms as is provided by law in sales by the County Treasurer for delinquent ad valorem taxes; and the Commissioner of Finance shall do all acts and sign and execute all certificates, deeds, and documents provided by such laws of the state to be done or performed by the County Treasurer in advertising and selling real estate for ad valorem taxes; and in like manner accept and receipt for all money paid in redemption of such property redeemed in the same manner and with the same effect as provided by law for the redemption of real estate sold by the County Treasurer for ad valorem taxes, or such charge, assessment or tax may be collected and the lien foreclosed by suit by the City of Tulsa in the proper court:

Section 11. Where, under the Charter for the City of Tulsa special taxes, charges or assessments are made a lien on the property, or where in such charter it is provided that such special taxes, charges or assessments shall be collected by sale of such property by the City of Tulsa for the non payment of taxes, such lien shall be foreclosed by suit by the city of Tulsa or such property may be sold for such tax or assessment by such officer of the City, and in such manner as may now or hereafter be provided by ordinance. Provided this revision shall not be applicable to special assessments, or installments of assessments levied or assessed under or by virtue of Article LX of the Charter of the City of Tulsa or for sewer or sewer construction.

Section 12. Any special tax hereafter levied or imposed may be collected in such manner as the ordinances of the City of Tulsa may provide, or as the Board of Commissioners of the City of Tulsa may by ordinance hereafter provide.

Section 13. That the provision of the Charter or ordinance of the City of Tulsa, with reference to the collection of special charges, assessments or taxes, shall in so far as inconsistent with this amendment be, upon the adoption of this Amendment rescinded and of no effect.
