

In consideration whereof, the said party of the second part agrees to deliver to party of the first part in tanks or pipe lines the one eighth (1/8) part of all oil produced and saved from the leased premises. And should gas be found on said premises in paying quantities, second party agrees to pay $ One hundred dollars yearly, in advance for the product of each gas well, while the same is being sold off the premises and first party shall have free use of the gas for domestic purposes, by making his own connections for such gas at his own risk and expense.

Second party agrees to locate all wells so as to interfere as little as possible with the cultivated portions of the premises and to pay for all damages to growing crops caused by said operations.

Second party agrees that if a well is not drilled on said premises within six months from the date hereof, then this lease and agreement shall be null and void, unless the party of the second part, within each and every year after the expiration of the time above mentioned for the drilling of a well, shall pay a rental of One dollar per acre until a well is drilled thereon, or until this lease is cancelled, as hereinafter provided. And it is agreed that the completion of a well shall be and operate as a full liquidation of all rental under this provision during the remainder of this lease. All rentals and other payments may be made direct to the party of the first part or may be deposited to his credit at Oklahoma State Bank at Collinsville, Okla.

And further, upon the payment of one dollar at any time after one year by the party of the second part, its heirs and assigns, to the party of the first part, heirs and assigns, said lessee shall have the right to surrender this lease for cancellation after which all payments and liabilities thereafter to accrue under and by virtue of its terms shall cease and determine and this lease become absolutely null and void.

All conditions between the parties hereto shall extend and apply to their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns.

In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written.
