

compensation or reimbursement to which such trustee may be or have become justly entitled for any services actually rendered or expenses incurred under this instrument; but any such trustee and his representatives shall at all times have a lien therefor upon all moneys, securities, and other trust property herein mentioned.

And it is further expressly understood and agreed that all the covenants, stipulations, premises, and agreements herein contained by or on behalf of said company shall bind and be binding upon its successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

Seventeenth. If the railroad company shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid all bonds to be issued under or entitled to the protection of this deed of trust and the coupons attached thereto at the times and in the manner therein specified, and shall well and truly keep and perform all the things herein required to be kept and performed by it, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, then, and in that case, all property, rights, and interests hereby conveyed shall revert to it, and the estate, right, title, and interest of the said trustee aforesaid shall thereupon cease, determine and become void; otherwise the same shall be, continue, and remain in full force and virtue.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have caused their respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed and the same to be attested by the signatures of their respective presidents and secretaries the day and year first above written.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, County of Philadelphia, SS.

I, Oscar H. Price, a notary public for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, residing in the city of Philadelphia, do certify that Charles E. Ingersoll, with whom I am personally acquainted, and to me known to be the President of the Midland Valley Railroad Company, whose name is signed to the foregoing deed of trust or mortgage of the Midland Valley Railroad Company, dated the first day of July, 1910, has this day personally appeared before me, in my county aforesaid, produced before me the said deed of trust or mortgage, and then and there acknowledged the same before me, in my county aforesaid, and has further acknowledged and declared that he executed the same as President of the Midland Valley Railroad Company, and as its attorney, and for and on behalf of the said company, as its and his voluntary act and deed, for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth, having as such President signed his name thereto and affixed the corporate seal of the said company, and caused the same to be duly attested by H. E. Yarnall, the secretary of said company, all of which has been done by him under and pursuant to the authority conferred on him by the stockholders and board of directors of the Midland Valley Railroad Company.

I do further certify that H. E. Yarnall, with whom I am personally acquainted, and to me known to be the secretary of the Midland Valley Railroad Company, whose name is also signed to the foregoing deed of trust or mortgage dated the first day of July 1910, as hereinbefore referred to, has also this day personally appeared before me, in my county, produced to me the said deed of trust or mortgage, and then and there acknowledged the same, and declared that, by the direction of Charles E. Ingersoll, as President of
