COMPARED

JUDGMENT.

State of Oklahoma, Tulsa county, ss.

In the district court in and for said county and state.

John M. Townley and Thomas L. Townley, plaintiffs vs.

George E. Clote, defendant.

Journal Entry of Default Judgment.

Now on this 20th day of February, 1911, being one of the regular judicial days of the special February, term of said court, this cause comes on to be heard in its regular order; and the plaintiffs appeared by their attorney, John R. Woodard, and the defendant, George E. Clote, having been three times called in open court to appear, except, demur, answer, or plead to the petition of the plaintiffs herein, came not, but makes default,

And the court having ordered that said defendant is in default and that the allegations contained in the plaintiffs' petition be taken as confessed; and it appearing to the court that said defendant has been duly and legally summoned more than twenty days prior to this date and notified of the pendency of this action as required by law; and the court being fully advised as to the facts in this cause, and in consideration thereof, finds that all the averments of the plaintiffs' petition are true as therein set forth, to-wit: That the plaintiffs are the legal owners in possession of the premises described in the petition, which premises are described as follows:

Beginning at a point 484 feet south of the north quarter section corner between sections eleven and twelve, township nineteen north, range twelve east, I. M. running thence south along section line between sections eleven and twelve of the above said township and range, one foot; thence west 722 feet to the Arkansas river; thence north along the left bank of said river one foot; thence east 722 feet to the beginning, lying in Tulsa county, Oklahoma.

and that their title thereto is valid and perfect and superior to any right or interest claimed by the defendant, and that defendant has no right, title, or interest in or to said premises.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the title and possession of said plaintiffs in the said premises be, and the same is hereby forever settled and quieted in the plaintiffs as against all claims or demands by the said defendant, and those claiming, or to claim under him; that the deed, executed February, 21, 1907, by Thomas Wiswall and wife to said defendant and recorded in the records of the United States Deputy clerk at Tulsa, Indian Territory in so far as it affects the title to the above described parcel of land, be and the same is hereby cancelled, and removed as a cloud on the title of the said plaintiffs, John M. Townley and Thomas L. Townley, in and to said described premises.

And it is further ordered, decreed and adjudged, that said defendant, George E.
