My commission expires. Jan. 16, 1913.

State of Pennsylvania )
County of Allegheny, ) SS.

BE IT REMEMBERED that, on this 16th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, before me, a Notary Public in and for the said county and state, personally appeared Jas. C. Chaplin and A. D. Robb who being by me first duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that they are respectively vice President and Secretary of the above named corporation, The Colonial Trust Company, and that they were personally present at the execution of the foregoing indenture and saw the common seal of the said corporation duly affixed thereto, and that the seal so affixed is the common and corporate seal of said corporation, and that the above indenture was duly signed, sealed and delivered by and as and for the act and deed of the said The Colonial Trust Company, for the uses and purposes therein contained, by authority thereunto duly and regularly given by the stockholders and Board of Directors thereof and that the names of these deponents subscribed to the said indenture as Vice President and Secretary of the said corporation, The Colonial Trust Company, in attestation of the due execution and delivery of the said indenture, are of these deponents' own, true, proper and respective hand writings.

And at the same time the said Jas. C. Chaplin and A. D. Robb, being personally known to me and known to me to be the same and identical persons described in and who executed the foregoing indenture of mortgage as Vice President and Secretary, respectively, of the said The Colonial Trust Company, in due form of law acknowledged to me that as such Vice President and Secretary they did execute the same, and the said indenture of mortgage is their free and voluntary act and deed and the free and voluntary act and deed of their said corporation, The Colonial Trust Company, for the uses and purposes therein.
