BE IT REMEMBERED, That on this day came before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public within and for the Western Judicial District of the Indian Territory aforesaid, duly commissioned and acting as such, Elmer R. Rolston to me personally well known as one of the parties grantor in and within the foregoing deed of conveyance, and stated that he executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein mentioned and set forth, and I do hereby so certify.

And I do further certify that on this day also voluntarily appeared before me, the said Mittie M. Rolston, wife of said Elmer R. Rolston to me personally well known to be the person whose name appears upon the within and foregoing deed of conveyance, and, in the absence of her said husband, declared that she had of her own free will, executed said deed and signed and sealed the relinquishment of dower and homestead therein expressed, for the purpose therein contained and set forth, without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.

Witness my hand and seal as such Notary Public on this 31 day of Oct. 1906.

W. R. Fraker, Notary Public.

W. P. Fraker, being first duly sworn upon his oath says; that he is the person who wrote out the attached deed, from Elmer R. Rolston to H. I. Kittrell and O. C. Bragg; that same was recorded in the office of the Deputy Clerk of the United States Court at Tulsa, Indian Territory, on June 26th, 1907; and appears upon the records of said office, and the name of the Grantee O. C. Bragg appears thereon as O. C. Brogg,, caused by the recorder taking the a in the name Bragg as o; that affiant knows the man Bragg therein named as grantee and knows that his name was Bragg and not Brogg and knows that the name in said deed is Bragg and not Brogg.

Affiant further says that he wrote in said deed the statement that the "parties of the second part assume a certain Note Dated May 13, 1905, for the sum of $450.00 Four Hundred Fifty dollars in favor of J. L. Wheeler," and in recording said deed the recorder made
