

the buildings on said property insured against fire, in a good and reputable insurance company, for the benefit of said second party, or assigns, to the extent of $-----, until this mortgage is paid or otherwise extinguished, then this instrument shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

PROVIDED, ALSO, That on default in the payment of any part of said principal or interest, or taxes, or other assessments, when and as the same shall become due, or if said first parties shall fail or neglect to keep the buildings on said property insured as above provided, then the whole of the money hereby secured shall become due and payable immediately upon such default or failure, at the option of the holder of said note and without further notice.

And the said first parties hereby promise and agree to and with the said second party, heirs, administrators, executors and assigns, to pay said principal interest, taxes and other assessments when and as the same shall become due, to maintain the insurance on the buildings as above provided, and to comply faithfully with all the terms and conditions of this mortgage, and that, in case any of said taxes or other assessments shall become delinquent, or in case said first parties shall fail to maintain the insurance on said buildings as above provided, the said second party may pay said taxes and assessments and may effect such insurance, and add the amounts so paid, with interest thereon, to the indebtedness hereby secured and recover the same as a part thereof; and that, in case of foreclosure of this mortgage, a reasonable sum, to be fixed by the Court, shall be recovered by said second party from said first parties as an attorney's fee, and shall be included in the decree foreclosing this mortgage.

Said first parties hereby waive the benefit of stay, valuation or appraisement laws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said first parties have hereunto set their hands this 29th day of March, 1910.

Julia Fountain,
R. E. Fountain.
