

day of July, 1909, and upon such hearing evidence was taken in open court and it appeared to the court that it would be for the best interest of said minors to lease said lands for oil and Gas Mining purposes, whereupon and ~~wh~~ an order was made by this Court granting said petition and authorizing and commanding said guardian to lease said lands for Oil and Gas mining purposes.

And it further appearing that on the 7th day of July A.D 1909 the said guardian made his due and legal return of said sale and leasing under said order of Court and it appearing by such return and by evidence taken in open court, that in conformity with, and according to the last said order of Court, said guardian J.A. Madden, leased and rented said lands to A.R. Jones and Frank Brown ~~and Frank Brown~~, they being the best and highest responsible purchasers for the same and that A.R. Jones and Frank Brown offer and agree to pay the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) as bonus for a lease on the lands of each of said minors and one eighth of all the oil produced as royalty, and Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars per year for each gas well thereon, from which gas is marketed and for domestic purposes on the premises delivered at the well, the same to be delivered to the guardian on behalf of said minors, Victor E. Madden and Leo B. Madden and for such other consideration as are set out in the lease filed herein.

And it further appearing that said bonus and said royalties and sum to be paid for each gas well as aforesaid is a fair and reasonable consideration for said lease and that a greater sum can not be obtained for the same.

Wherefore, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the sale of said leases be confirmed for the considerations aforesaid and that said guardian, J.A. Madden make good and sufficient leases to said purchasers, A.R. Jones and Frank Brown for a period of four years on the lands of Victor E. Madden and until the said Victor E. Madden arrives at the age of twenty-one years, and for a period of six years on the lands of Leo B. Madden and until the said Leo B. Madden arrives at the age of twenty one years, specifying and describing the aforesaid lands and the consideration to be paid for said lease as aforesaid.
