Be it remembered that on this 1st day of September 1906, before me a Notary Public in and for the Territory and district aforesaid, duly commissioned, qualified and acting as such, personally appeared T.J. Measles, of Bartlesville, Indian Territory, to me well known as the person he represents himself to be, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he was personally acquainted with John J. Cloud, deceased, and has personal knowledge of all the relations of said deceased, same being as follows:

Said John J. Cloud, died on or about the 19th day of January, 1905, and at the time was residing with his half sister at Talala, Indian Territory, his father, Rider Cloud, died about fifteen years ago and his mother, Elizabeth Cloud, died in 1887. Louvenia Cloud, a half sister and Sina Cloud, a half sister, both died many years before the death of said John J. Cloud and both were unmarried and without descendants, being of a very tender age? William W. Foreman is a half brother and Mary A. Clark, a half sister of said Cloud.

The foregoing constitutes all of the relatives of said Cloud. That affiant has no interest of any kind whatsoever in the estate of said John J. Cloud.

T. J. Measles.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of September 1906.
