

notice to the Traction Company and for cause to be shown, to annul such appointment and appoint a trustee in the place of the trustee so appointed to hold the trust for the like term as such Trustee ~~would~~ hold the same under the president's appointment but no longer.

ARTICLE TWELFTH. The said Traction Company hereby expressly reserves to itself the right to pay off and redeem all the bonds of the issue herein and hereby secured at their face value, plus accrued interest, on any day after sixty (60) days from the date of May 23, 1910, after first giving one month's notice in writing to said trustee of its intention so to do and of the date of said proposed redemption, and, if said bonds and coupons shall not be presented for payment at the office of said Colonial Trust Company on the date specified in said notice, said bonds shall then cease to bear interest, provided, said bonds are promptly paid when presented thereafter for payment, otherwise said bonds shall bear interest according to their legal tenor and effect. All bonds and coupons paid and redeemed as aforesaid as well as those paid at maturity shall be forthwith cancelled by the said trustee and delivered to said Traction company, provided that nothing herein recited shall prevent said Traction Company at any time after sixty (60) days from May 23, 1910, from paying off and redeeming any number of said bonds, if the holders thereof consent to same, ~~but~~ said bonds, when redeemed, shall in all cases be cancelled by said trustee and delivered to said Traction Company.

ARTICLE THIRTEENTH. If the said Traction company shall well and truly pay the principal sum herein required to be by it paid, and all interest thereon at the time and in the manner herein specified and shall well and truly keep, perform and observe all the agreements and things herein agreed and required to be kept, performed and observed by it according to the true intent and meaning of this instrument, then, the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustee in and to the property herein and hereby conveyed shall cease and determine and this instrument shall become void and the said property shall revert to the said Traction Company, its successors and assigns, without any conveyance of or on the part of the trustee but, nevertheless, upon the happening of said event, the said traction company, its successors or assigns may require and the Trustee shall be obliged to make a re-conveyance of said property to the said Traction Company, as evidence of such reinvestment of the title to the same in said Traction Company, its successors and assigns, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver any instrument which may be necessary or proper to secure the cancellation of this instrument and the satisfaction of the same upon the record; but otherwise, this instrument shall be and remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE FOURTEENTH. The said trustee hereby accepts the trusts created by this instrument and agrees that he will exercise and perform the powers and duties herein set forth to the best of his ability at the time and in the manner and upon the contingencies and conditions herein mentioned; provided, however, that nothing herein recited shall be construed to prevent him from resigning and discharging himself from said trusts as aforesaid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Traction Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its President sealed with its corporate seal duly attested by its Secretary and the said John A. Oliphant has hereunto signed his name on the day and year hereinbefore first written.
